Brooke Laine Announces Candidacy for El Dorado County Board of Supervisors District V

Brooke Laine announces her candidacy for the El Dorado County Board of Supervisors District V primary election June 7, 2022.

Brooke Laine is a life-long resident of El Dorado County with a successful career in banking with both US Bank and Bank of the West, and operated long-time family photography business, Laine Photolabs, Inc. Her economics degree is from UC Santa Cruz. She is a wife, mother, sister, Soroptimist, retired bank manager, and former Mayor and City Councilmember of South Lake Tahoe.

She understands the diversity of District V and will work to represent the issues that are important: fire and public safety, health care, insurance cancellations, infrastructure improvements, climate change, housing, traffic, vacation home rental enforcement, tourism, snow removal, and other issues as they arise.
